How do I determine what qualifies as my Montana source income when I am a non-resident of Montana?

In general, as a non-resident of Montana your Montana source income is all the income that you receive for work that you perform in Montana, income that you receive from real or personal property that is located in Montana, and income that you receive from a business conducted in Montana.

How do I determine my Montana source income when I am a part-year resident of Montana?

As a part-year resident you are considered a resident for part of the year and a non-resident for the other part of the year.

In general, for the part of the year that you are a non-resident your Montana source income is all the income that you receive for work that you perform in Montana, income that you receive from real or personal property that is located in Montana, and income that you receive from a business conducted in Montana.

For the part of the year that you are a resident, all of your income that you receive, no matter where you earn it, is Montana source income.

Where can I find further information on what is my Montana source income?

For further information and a line by line description of what Montana source income is, refer to pages ?? through ?? of the instruction booklet for Form 2, Schedule I.

MONTANA TAX CREDITS

We have listed the 27 Montana tax credits available to you under three categories. With the exception to the capital gains tax credit, which is required to be applied before any other credit, (refer to the instructions for Form 2, line 47 for the capital gains tax credit) you are not required to apply any of these 27 tax credits against your income tax liability in any particular order.

- Nonrefundable single-year credits. Your nonrefundable single-year credits can only be used to offset your 2006 resident, non-resident, or part-year resident tax after capital gains credit and cannot reduce your tax liability below zero. The unused portion of your nonrefundable single-year credits that exceeded your 2006 income tax liability are lost and are unable to be used in future years.

- Nonrefundable carryover credits. Your nonrefundable carryover credits can be used to offset your 2006 resident, non-resident, or part-year resident tax after capital gains credit and cannot reduce your tax liability below zero. Your excess nonrefundable credits that were not applied against your 2006 income tax liability can be carried over and used to offset future year tax liabilities.
- Refundable credits. Your refundable credits are applied against your income tax liability with any unused credit refunded to you.

Instructions: You may claim a credit for an income tax liability paid to another state or country by yourself, your S. corporation or your partnership. If you claim this credit for an income tax paid by your S. corporation or partnership, you will need to include as an addition to federal adjusted gross income on Form 2, Schedule I, line 16 your share of the S. corporation's or partnership's deduction for income tax paid, whether separately or non-separately stated on your federal K-1.

NEW FOR TAX YEAR 2006: You are not entitled to a Montana tax credit for taxes paid to a foreign country if you claimed these foreign taxes paid as a foreign tax credit on your federal income tax return.

- Your credit is limited to an income tax liability paid on income that is also taxed by Montana.
- Your income taxes paid include excise taxes or franchise taxes that are imposed on and measured by the net income of your S. corporation or partnership.
- This is a nonrefundable credit and cannot reduce your Montana tax liability below zero.
- This is a nonrefundable single year credit. No unused credit amount can be carried forward.
- You will need to complete a separate Schedule VI or VII for each state or country that you have paid an income tax liability to. You can not combine payments on one schedule.
- If you are a part-year resident, you have to allocate your income using Form 2, Schedule IV before completing Form 2, Schedule VII.
